Why Corporate Catering?

In Dallas, catering for your corporate events will not only save you time and the price of preparing each meal, but it will also save you the worry of making sure that everything is perfect. When you worry, little details can slip your mind. A Taste of the World will make sure nothing slips through the cracks.

Our menus are crafted by hand with a team of specialized chefs, coordinating flavors to your taste and using only the best and local ingredients. Our catering orders include plates, cups, napkins, utensils, and all the condiments you might need to fully create the best experience. Our on-site staff will also be ready and are equipped to best serve you.

Corporate Cafeterias

Nothing invigorates a corporate team like a fresh, hot, delicious lunch. When you utilize A Taste of the World, we will make sure that your team is ready for the next half of the day.

We will work with you to design a creative, varied weekly menu that will work for you and the tastes of your corporation. Clients that provide this service to their company see a dramatic increase in workers' productivity.
